INITIAL AND VARIATION MARGINS AND OTHER DEFICITS

11. The Client AGREES AND ACKNOWLEDGES that:

11.1 Should the Client fail to meet the call (or lodge Approved Securities) then Bell Commodities may (without prejudice to any other rights or powers under this Agreement) in its absolute discretion, and without creating an obligation to do so, close-out, without notice, all or some of the Client's futures contracts;

11.2 The time for payment of margins is of the essence and if no other time is stipulated by Bell Commodities prior to calling a Margin, then the Client is required to comply within twenty four (24) hours;

11.3 Bell Commodities may call for payment of initial or variation margin (by whatever terms those obligations are described) such money or property (or call for the lodgement of Approved Securities in lieu thereof) as Bell Commodities, in its absolute discretion, deems necessary to protect itself from the personal obligation incurred by dealing in futures contracts on behalf of the Client;

11.4 Clients must have sufficient surplus funds in their Account with Bell Commodities to cover the full initial margin applicable to the position they open prior to the execution of the order;

11.5 Liability to pay the initial margin accrues at the time the trade is executed regardless of when the call is made;

11.7 Closure of an open position does not negate the obligation to pay initial and variation margins;

11.8 Bell Commodities may, in its absolute discretion, vary initial margin requirements and shall not be obliged to apply the initial margin requirements applicable on a Futures Exchange where the dealing takes place, provided that Bell Commodities calls at least the minimum initial margin required by such Futures Exchange;

11.9 Where the Client authorises Bell Commodities to allocate any futures contract executed by Bell Commodities pursuant to the Client's instructions to another Participant of the Futures Exchange where the execution takes place for clearing on behalf of the Client and that allocation is accepted by the other Participant then clauses 11.1 to 11.4 inclusive and clause 11.8 shall not apply to those futures contracts that are the subject of the allocation;

11.10 The Client's liability in respect of margin calls is not limited to the amount, if any, deposited with Bell Commodities;

11.11 Where a Client has positions in non Australian dollar denominated markets or Futures Exchanges ("Foreign Market"), Bell Commodities may call for payment of initial and/or variation cash margins in the currency of that Foreign Market, or alternatively call for the Australian dollar equivalent and without prior notice to the Client, Bell Commodities may convert such margin to the currency of the Foreign Market. Such margins will be credited to a ledger account in the Client's name denominated in the particular foreign currency. Where the Client has settled a margin call in Australian dollars and Bell Commodities has converted such Australian dollars to the currency of the Foreign Market, Bell Commodities shall on close-out of the trade in the Foreign Market, convert such foreign currency balance back to Australian dollars (again without prior notice to the Client) unless the Client directs Bell Commodities otherwise. In converting monies from one currency to another under this clause Bell Commodities may use such exchange rate as it selects in its absolute discretion;

11.12 The Client is responsible to pay in cash any deficit owing to Bell Commodities including, but without limiting the generality of the foregoing, option premiums, debit settlements, interest, delivery charges and exchange fees and charges, and the time for payment of such other deficit owing to Bell Commodities shall be of the essence, and if no other time is stipulated by Bell Commodities when making a call to pay then the Client is required to comply within twenty four (24) hours. If the Client defaults in payment of such deficit owing to Bell Commodities as aforesaid, Bell Commodities may realise any securities held by it and apply the proceeds against the deficiency.

CLIENT'S DEFAULT

12. The Client AGREES in the event that:

12.1 The Client becomes bankrupt or enters into a composition or arrangement for the benefit of creditors or being a company goes into liquidation voluntarily or otherwise or a petition is presented for the winding up of the Client (except for the purpose of reconstruction) or enters into any scheme or arrangement with creditors or any liquidator, receiver or official manager is appointed; or if an application is made to any court for an order summoning a meeting of creditors of the Client;

12.2 The Client makes any representation that is incorrect or misleading in any material way with the result that loss or damage is, or is likely to be, suffered by Bell Commodities; or

12.3 Any guarantee of or security for the Client's obligations is, without the consent of Bell Commodities, withdrawn or becomes defective or insufficient; or

12.4 The Client fails to meet a call for initial or variation margin or lodge Approved Securities in lieu thereof; or

12.5 The Client, being a natural person, dies or becomes of unsound mind or his or her person or estate is liable to be dealt with in any way under any law relating to mental health; or

12.6 The Client imposes a moratorium on payments to creditors or ceases or threatens to cease carrying on business; or

12.7 In the absence of the Client making alternative arrangements, the Client is not contactable by Bell Commodities within twenty four (24) hours in order for Bell Commodities to obtain instructions; or

12.8 Where the Client authorises Bell Commodities to allocate any futures contract executed by Bell Commodities pursuant to the Client's instructions to another Participant of the Futures Exchange where the execution takes place and such other Participant declines to accept allocation of the trade; or

12.9 The conduct of the Client is such that a reasonably prudent futures broker would be of the view that the Client would be unable to comply with all the Client's obligations under this Agreement, including - without limiting the generality of the foregoing - strict compliance with any time limits; or

 - where the round turn brokerage is payable as to one half on the opening and one half on the closing of a transaction, the abandonment, expiry, or transfer of the open position to another broker nominated by the Client shall also attract the one half closing brokerage as if the transaction had been closed by the execution by Bell Commodities of an equal and opposite transaction.
- 13.2 Such fees and charges, other than brokerage, including but not limited to bank fees, electronic exchange fees, administration fees for services, and fees for statement production or reproduction at the rates notified in writing to the Client from time to time. Where bank charges are incurred by Bell Commodities as a result of payment or receipt of funds in respect to a Client's account, Bell Commodities shall have the right to pass such charges on to the Client's account for payment by debiting the Client's account;
- 13.3 All stamp duty, duties and taxes payable on this Agreement or in connection with dealings in futures contracts as aforesaid or both, together with the amount of any GST payable by Bell Commodities on any taxable supply under this Agreement, in addition to any amounts payable by the Client hereunder;
- 13.4 All amounts payable as a result of making or taking delivery or making a cash adjustment in accordance with the terms of a futures contract;
- 13.5 All amounts incurred by Bell Commodities as a result of the Client's default under the terms of this Agreement, including without limiting the generality of the foregoing all collection expenses and all legal costs and expenses on a solicitor/Client basis;
- 13.6 In respect of any unpaid amount required to be paid under this Agreement, (including without limiting the generality of the foregoing, any amounts due as a result of the Client's futures contract being closed out) interest at 6% per annum above the Australia and New Zealand Banking Group's (ANZ) Base Rate, or in the event of Bell Commodities utilising the services of a bank other than the ANZ then, at Bell Commodities' discretion, at the aforementioned rate or 6% per annum above that other bank's equivalent rate to the Anza's Base Rate, and such interest shall be calculated daily and shall be charged monthly from the date when the amount was due (irrespective of any grace period) to the date of final payment in full.
- EXCHANGE RATE RISK
14. If the Client defaults under the terms of this Agreement, Bell Commodities may elect to convert any amount owed by the Client (including any interest) into Australian currency either at the date of the Client's default or on the date on which the
